At Trissels . . .

Trissels Mennonite Women will be making layettes again this year. If anyone is interested in making a financial donation toward this project you may give monies to Phyllis or Gloria Sn. Checks may be made payable to Trissels Mennonite Women.

A note to the Trissels congregation from the Harmonia Sacra singers of the Shenandoah Valley: "We thank you for the opportunity to again hold our annual Trissels singing, at 7:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 2. We invite you to join us! All those who wish to lead a song or two from Harmonia Sacra will be invited to do so, and an update on the Joseph Funk House project will be given. Books will be available for use by those who do not have their own copy of this oldest English hymnbook still in continuous use, first published by the Funk family of nearby Singers Glen, VA, in 1832."

You are invited! The Greater Hope 13th annual fundraising banquet will be held on Tuesday, April 27th at 6:30pm at Mrs. Rowe's Country Buffet (formerly Evers Family Restaurant). "So if the son sets you free, you are free through and through. John 8:36." This year's keynote speaker will be Donna Lou Shickel nationally known entertainer and syndicated radio host. Enjoy a complimentary meal, hear inspiring music and testimonies and find out what God is doing through Greater Hope. If you are interested in attending, contact Jenny M. by April 19th.

Our church website has audio of recent sermons. Go to www.trisselsmc.org and click on "Hear Sermons." Or check out the selection of audio CDs in our library if you want to hear a recording of an entire worship service. Extra copies can be easily made; contact Grace or Harold.

Don't miss the 7th annual Our Community Place Plant Sale, Saturday April 24! Attention gardeners and other plant enthusiasts! As you prepare for spring: thinning/moving/clearing flower beds, making cuttings, dividing perennials, and wondering what to do about your overzealous seedling planting (or whatever the scenario is that has caused you to be overrun with plants). . . we can find happy new homes for your babies AND raise much-needed funds for OCP. Come on by with your donation, make a purchase or a swap of beautiful plants to spruce up your yard and flower beds. We'll also have garden structures available for sale: trellises, window boxes, cold frames, and stackable compost bins, hand-built by Our Community Works – a new off-shoot of OCP that provides good and meaningful work for our community's homeless and otherwise unemployed. The event will take place from 10 am to 2 pm and will feature live music and snacks. OCP is located at 17 E. Johnson Street, at the corner of Johnson and Main across from the Little Grill Collective. Call Melaine 540.433.7738 or email ourcommunityplace@gmail.com with any questions.

The 14' x 28' Weekday Religious Education building at the Linville-Edom school is in need of siding. The cost of materials is $800-900; persons are offering to put it on the building free of charge. If you would like to be a partner in buying the siding, earmark above budget giving.

You are invited to the VMRC Auxiliary Annual Meeting on Thursday, May 20, 7 p.m. in the Detwiler Auditorium at VMRC. Come enjoy a relaxing evening of musical performances, short business meeting, fellowship, and refreshments as we celebrate another year of Auxiliary service. For more information, call Pearl Lantz at (540) 433-1591.
